Academic writing
学术写作

When you are writing an essay and want to quote what someone has said or written, your choice of words depends on whether you agree or disagree with the writer, or whether you simply want to report what the writer has said. Here are some groups of verbs that you can use. 写论文时若想引述某人说过的话或写的文章,措词取决于自己是否同意作者的话,或者取决于自己是否只想转述作者说的话。下面是几组可以使用的动词。

if you are simply reporting what the writer says 如果只是在转述作者说的话

Harding (1980) reports that girls seem to do worse than boys when multiple-choice questions are used. 哈丁(1980)说,在做多项选择题时,女生的表现似乎不如男生。 argue, comment, conclude, consider, remark, report, say, state, write

if you agree with the writer 如果同意作者的看法

He points out that technological development in health care is a continuous process. 他指出,保健方面的技术发展是个持续的过程。 acknowledge, demonstrate, draw attention to, emphasize, find, indicate, make clear, note, observe, point out, recognize if you disagree with the writer, or if you are not sure that you agree 如果不同意作者的看法,或者无法确定自己是否同意

He claims specifically that this is because writing itself has a dual function. 他特别声明这是因为写作本身具有双重功能。 assert, claim, contend, imply, maintain

if you are reporting that the writer is not sure 如果是在转述作者没有把握的看法

Hunt suggests that conflict is constructive, when its effect is to introduce different solutions to problems. 亨特暗示说,如果冲突的结果是引出问题的不同解决办法,那么冲突就是建设性的。

if you are reporting the writer's reaction to other writers 如果是在转述作者对其他作者的反应

She counters this by pointing out that both techniques have a number of disadvantages. 她通过指出两种技术都有一些不利之处来反驳这一点。 accept, agree, concede, concur, contradict, counter, deny, disagree, object, rebut, refute

Other ways of showing whether you agree with the writer 表示是否同意作者看法的其他表达方式

You can show if you agree through other choices of wording. For example, as Smith argues means that you agree, but while/although/despite/notwithstanding Smith... means that you are going to disagree. To report a writer without giving your own opinion, you can use phrases such as according to Smith or in Smith's view/opinion. 可以通过其他措词来表示是否同意。例如,as Smith argues 意味着同意,而 while/although/despite/notwith standing Smith... 则意味着不同意。如果想不加入个人的观点转述作者的话,可以使用 according to Smith 或 in Smith's view/opinion 等短语。

You can also show if you agree through your choice of tense. For example, Smith argues... means that you are simply reporting what Smith says, but Smith argued... suggests that you disagree, or that Smith has been proved wrong. 还可以通过时态选择来表示自己是否同意。例如,Smith argues... 意味着只是转述 Smith 的话,但 Smith argued... 则表示不同意或者 Smith 已经被证明是错误的。

Many of the verbs in these lists have related nouns that you can use in similar ways to the verbs to show agreement and disagreement, for example 所列出的这些动词中,许多动词都有派生出的名词。可以用与动词相类似的方法使用这些名词,来表示同意或者不同意,例如: argument, claim, contention, contradiction, demonstration, hypothesis, and suggestion.

rugby /ˈrʌgbi/ noun [U] ★ a game played by two teams of players with a ball shaped like an egg. Goals are scored by kicking the ball over a high bar, and points called tries are scored by putting the ball behind the goal line 英式橄榄球

Until recently, Rugby Union (with 15 players in a team) was a completely amateur sport (=the players were not paid), while Rugby League (13 players) has always had professional clubs. In England, Rugby Union was considered mainly as a game for 'gentlemen' who went to private schools. Rugby League is played mainly in the north, in areas that once had a lot of coal mines, so it is seen as a working-class sport. In Scotland and Wales (where Rugby League is not played very much), the class differences are not so strong. The two sports used to have a bad relationship with each other, but this is now changing, and players can now pass from one sport (or code) to the other. 直到最近,业余英式橄榄球(每队15个队员)还完全是业余性质的,而联盟制橄榄球(每队13人)则一直都有职业的俱乐部。在英格兰,业余英式橄榄球过去主要被看作是私立学校中的"绅士"所从事的运动。而联盟制橄榄球主要在英格兰北部曾有许多煤矿的地区盛行,因此它被看成是工人阶级的运动。在苏格兰和威尔士(联盟制橄榄球不太流行)阶级差别没有这么明显。两种制式的运动之间过去常常关系不睦,但现已有所改观,球员们现在可以从一种制式转到另一制式。

shall /ʃəl; strong 强读 ʃæl/ modal verb ★★★

Shall is usually followed by an infinitive without 'to'. shall 通常后接不带 to 的不定式: I shall explain everything later. 我等会儿来解释这一切。Sometimes it is used without a following infinitive. 有时后面不带不定式: I have never visited America and probably never shall. 我从未去过美国,可能永远也不会去。

Shall does not change its form, so the third person singular form does not end in '-s'. shall 没有词形变化,因此它的第三人称单数形式依然是 shall: The President shall appoint all ambassadors with the consent of the Senate. 总统任命的所有大使都要获得参议院的批准才行。

Questions and negatives are formed without 'do'. 在疑问句和否定句中不用助动词 do: Shall I come with you? 我和你一起去好吗?

The negative form shall not can be shortened in conversation or informal writing to shan't. 其否定形式 shall not 在对话或非正式文体中可缩写为 shan't。

Shall has no participles and no infinitive form. Shall can be used for forming the future tense of another verb when the subject is 'I' or 'we', but it does not have a future tense of its own. shall 没有分词和不定式形式。在句子主语是 I 或 we 时,它可以与另外一个动词连用构成将来时态,但该词本身并无将来时形式: We shall see you tomorrow. 我们明天去看你。

Should can sometimes be used as the past tense of shall, for example in indirect speech introduced by a verb in the past tense. should 有时可用作 shall 的过去式，比如在由动词过去式引导的间接引语中：I hoped that I should not need to defend myself. 我希望我将来不需要为自己辩护。

Shall have followed by a past participle forms the future perfect tense and shows that an action will be completed before a particular time in the future. shall have 后接过去分词构成将来完成时，表示在将来的某个时间前某一动作已经完成：We shall have completed the first section by Monday. 到周一我们就会完成第一部分。

1 Br E 【英】used for saying what you intend to do in the future or what situation you expect to be in 将；会：I/we shall I shall be busy all day tomorrow. 我明天一整天都会很忙。◆ If he gets violent, I shall phone the police. 如果他凶暴起来，我会打电话报警。◆ We shan't be able to stay with you very long. 我们将无法和你一起住很久。◆ I think I shall have to postpone our little chat. 我想我得把我们的聊天推迟一下。◆ Over the next ten years we shall spend £25 billion on the health service. 在接下来的 10 年里，我们将在医疗卫生事业方面支出 250 亿英镑。◆ shall have By nightfall we shall have achieved our objectives. 黄昏时，我们就能完成我们的目标。

In forming the future tense shall is only used with the subject 'I' or 'we'. Will or its short form 'll is much more common with all subjects. Both verbs are used to express intentions, but will also expresses willingness. 在构成将来时的时候，shall 仅用于主语 I 或 we 的后面。will 或其缩略形式 'll 则更常见于各种人称。两个动词均用于表示意图，但 will 还可以表示意愿：I will come with you if you like. 如果你乐意，我愿意和你一起去。

2 used for offering help, suggesting something, or asking someone what they would like you to do …好吗？要不要…？（用于主动提供帮助、建议或询问意见）：shall I/we...? Shall we have some lunch? 我们要不要吃点午饭？◆ Shall I help you with your luggage? 要不要我帮你拿行李？◆ Shall I open the champagne? 我把香槟打开好吗？◆ Where shall we meet? 我们要在哪里碰头呢？2a. used for asking for advice when you cannot decide what to do 该，要（用于征求别人的意见）：what shall I/we...? *What shall we do? S

Should is usually followed by an infinitive without 'to'. should 通常后接不带 to 的不定式: You should eat more fresh fruit. 你应该多吃些新鲜水果。Sometimes should is used without a following infinitive. 有时 should 后面不接不定式: I don't always do everything I should. 我并非总是做所有该做的事情。

Should does not change its form, so the third person singular form does not end in '-s'. should 没有词形变化,故其第三人称单数形式也不加-s: She should see a doctor about that cough. 她应该去找医生看看她那咳嗽。

Questions and negatives are formed without 'do'. 构成疑问句和否定句时不用 do: Should we come back later? 我们等会儿回来吗? ◆ You should not bring up embarrassing topics. 你不应该提起令人尴尬的话题。

The negative form should not is often shortened in conversation or informal writing to shouldn't. 在对话或非正式文体中,其否定形式 should not 常缩略为 shouldn't: Those kids shouldn't be in there. 那些孩子不应该在那里。

Should is often used in question tags. should 常用于附加问句中: We should leave a tip, shouldn't we? 我们应该给小费,是不是?

Should has no participles and no infinitive form. There is no past tense, but should have followed by a past participle can be used for referring to actions that did not happen or for actions that have probably happened. should 没有分词和不定式形式,也没有过去式,但 should have 后接过去分词可以用来表示没有发生或很可能已经发生的动作: I should have brought an umbrella (=I did not bring one). 我本来应该带把伞的。◆ The meeting should have finished by now (=it is likely it has ended). 会议现在应该已经结束了。

When indirect speech is introduced by a verb in the past tense, should can be used as the past tense of shall. 在由动词过去式引导的间接引语中, should 可以用作 shall 的过去式: I explained that I should be too busy to see them the following day. 我解释说我第二天会很忙,没有时间见他们。
